

M1 Kliniken AG continues its expansion

Berlin, 08.05.2017/08:00 – M1 Kliniken AG, ISIN: DE000A0STSQ8, announces the acquisition of a building for a surgery center in Essen, Germany.

M1 Kliniken AG has acquired a property with 2,000 square meters in the city center of Essen (Germany) and is planning to build a new surgery center there. The location of Essen and the surrounding cities and municipalities has almost the same potential as the existing M1 Beauty Clinic in Berlin-Köpenick, which is expected to reach its capacity limits in 2017. The new operations center in Essen will complement the surrounding M1 Beauty sites in Düsseldorf and Cologne. It also targets patients from the western neighbors Belgium and from the Netherlands.

The M1 concept, to offer the best quality with affordable access to aesthetic medicine, is very well received by the customers. The Schlossklinik in Berlin, with six operating rooms and 35 patient beds, as well as the nationwide 13 M1 specialist centers, are very popular. The expansion of existing locations and the establishment of new locations in Germany and Europe remain a priority for the company group in the further course of 2017.
